

Route Setter Position

The Stronghold is looking for an experienced and talented route setter to join our team. Our route setters are held to the highest standard of route/problem quality and are expected to continually develop with the team to create the best routes and problems in Los Angeles. Our setters play a crucial role in the success of the gym and so we compensate them for their talent, experience and hard work (see pay & benefits below). Setting position details:

- 3 days a week of setting (about 24 hrs)
- Possibility of as many as 40 hrs a week with extra jobs like wall maintenance, handyman, coaching, etc. depending on qualifications.

IDEAL CANDIDATE

- Minimum 1 year of setting experience, ideally 5+ years of 3+ days a week
- Ability to climb at least V8 and 5.13- outdoors
- Passionate and experienced with sport climbing and bouldering
- Competition setting experience
- Great work ethic, clean & organised and works well with a team

WORK ENVIRONMENT

- One of the best hold, volume and fiberglass selections in Southern California
- Monthly hold budget
- Modern route setting with big flat panels, lots of volumes, creative movement, etc.
- Focus on quality - only set 1 - 3 routes a day and 3 - 4 boulder problems a day
- All tools provided (impacts, ascenders, adjustable daisies, RIGS, pro tractions, etc)
- Dedicated hold washing personnel for rope re-sets

OUR TEAM

- Each setter has 10+ years of setting experience
- One USAC level 4 setter
- Small, friendly, close knit team of only 3 or 4 setters

PAY + BENEFITS

- $16 - $24+/hr depending on route quality, experience, forerunning ability, setting efficiency, certifications, etc.
- Possibility for health benefits (32 hours/week and above).
- Free membership & retail pro-deals
- Flexible time-off policy

APPLICATION

Please send your resume and cover letter to jobs@strongholdclimb.com.

